

I feel there should be a limit to the number and kind of broadcast outlets one company can have. Otherwise the American people will lose unbiased voices and differing opinions. That is not the American way! I also believe local ownership of the media is important because people need to have a local voice. Besides which, I don't want one-size-fits-all programming. That stamps out creativity.

Judy Meredith